Twitter Comes to the National Guild of Hypnotists Convention Blog

dateline : July 19, 2008

Did you notice that the NGH Blog is using Twitter? Here on the blog's home page, you will see a pale red box, located on the right side of the page. Inside that box, you'll find updates on the National Guild of Hypnotist convention and pre-convention news. You can also receive these updates directly on your cell phone so that you never miss a National Guild of Hypnotists teleseminar, or any other important convention news item.

Here is how Twitter describes their service to your cell phone:

About using Twitter on your phone

"Twitter really shines when you're away from your computer.

By hooking up your mobile phone, you can receive updates from those you're following (or just some people) when you're waiting in boring lines. And you can send updates, like "OMG, there's a monkey walking down the street!"-which, lets face it, you're unlikely to see while you're indoors.

It's all done through text messages (aka "sms"), which you probably use all the time anyway, so there's not much to learn.

Twitter doesn't charge anything for this, but be sure to know what your text plan looks like with your wireless carrier.

Also know that you can shut text messages from Twitter off at anytime by replying with "off" (and back on by sending "on"). And you can even specify that it turn off automatically at night."

Are You Ready for 08-08-08?

The National Guild of Hypnotists Convention, 2008, is scheduled for August 8-9-10. In case you've missed it ... the first day of this year's convention will fall on:

08-08-08 !

Don't let that date catch you behind the eight ball. Instead, break out your "magic" eight ball and ask it the all-important question, "Will I be missing the opportunity of a lifetime if I fail to attend the National Guild of Hypnotists Convention 2008?"

We can guarantee that the answer will be an emphatic, "YES!"

Check the countdown clock that appears just below the Twitter box on the right hand side of the blog, and you will see that we are counting down the days, hours, minutes and seconds until 08-08-08!
