

2008 NGH CONVENTION BLOG

SUMMARY

National Guild of Hypnotists.

Thank You, Tom Nicoli!

<http://www.nghconvention2008.com/>

In 66 seconds, this video provides an excellent overview of what to expect (and anticipate) at the 2008 NGH Convention and Educational Conference. Be sure you add both Tom and Martin's videos to your own websites and blogs. It will help your clients see your commitment to continuing your professional growth and training, and it will entice people who are interested in hypnosis and hypnotism to attend our convention and learn more about the opportunities to use these skills in both their professional and their personal life.

By the way, the process of adding a video that is published on YouTube to your own blog or website is simple. You need the embed code, which for videos that appear on YouTube, always appears to the right of the video.

Paste the full code into the html view of your blog post, in the place that you want the video to appear. Even if you work in an html editor, you can still add the video, by switching to "code" view and pasting the code where you want it to appear.

For Tom's video, the code is: `<object width="425" height="344"><param name="movie" value="http://www.youtube.com/v/eiloxMAru-Q&hl=en"></param><embed src="http://www.youtube.com/v/eiloxMAru-Q&hl=en" type="application/x-shockwave-flash" width="425" height="344"></embed></object>`

Who's Talking about the NGH Convention?

dateline : June 7, 2008

Thank you, thank you, thank you to: Jerry Kein, Rosemarie Schulman, and Susan Gayle, another three valued members of the National Guild of Hypnotists who have recorded their testimonials to appear on the NGH Convention Blog. If you haven't played the testimonials, we encourage you to listen to them. They are informative and inspiring...and the only thing missing, is you! After you listen to what other Guild members have to say, be sure you add your own testimonial. Why Would You Ever Miss a Single NGH TeleSeminar?

There are informative,
exciting NGH Teleseminars
EVERY WEEK.

Check the NGH Blog for the schedule for each current week.

A Teleseminar Tip:

During teleseminars, remember to disable the "call waiting" feature on your phone before you dial in. In most areas, you can do this by dialing *70. After you hang up from the teleconference, call waiting is automatically reactivated on your line. However, *70 is not the disable code for all phone systems. Check with your telephone service provider.
